

Rey Roa, choirmaster, and the Salt Lake Fil-Am Vocal Ensemble very generously donated their time and talent and provided an evening of exquisite choral music on April 19 at Judge Memorial Catholic High School . All proceeds will go to the New Church Fund.

Father Carley asks for spare millions at the end of the concert. The evening's event was truly Something Beautiful for God".

About 450 attended the concert. Shown on the left is the lobby during Intermission.

Concert-goers study the latest architectural model brought in by architects, Anne Mooney & John Sparano.

A nice assortment of cookies was served at the concert.